From the Pastor...

This weekend it is a great joy to welcome our archbishop Donald Cardinal Wuerl at our 10 a.m. Mass for my Installation Mass. During the Mass, the Cardinal officially presents me to you as your new Pastor, as well as asks me to renew my ordination promises before you. It is a powerful witness of my role as your new Pastor and your role in all you do to support me, our parish and our mission for the Lord.

Thank you for your generous contributions last weekend to our regular offertory collection and for the Food Pantry "Poor Box" monthly collection. The boost in the regular offertory is a great help as we start to gear up for the fall and the many ministries and religious education programs that get underway again for the year. And, your continual support of the Food Pantry helps feed so many people in need in our community.

We have now concluded our five summer camps. The past week was the first time we held a Science Camp and the campers loved it. It was a joy to see the kids using their creative scientific minds and having a great time. I thank Joann Scanlan and all the many adults and teenagers that worked so hard this summer to make all of the summer camps a great success!

C.S. said, "To love at all is to be vulnerable." And, to "Love anything ... your heart will be wrung and possibly broken" from time to time. But if you have experienced true love in your life – love of God, love of family, love of friends – than you know it is all worth it. We will find times in life when it is tough to love. We will doubt in life like we saw Peter do in today's Gospel. But, may we also love like Peter did in loving the people he was asked to shepherd and in giving his all for the Lord. Let us love knowing that it is all worth it because the reward of God's love in the end will conquer all pain and challenges in this life. Amen.

God bless,
Fr. Dan

Open for Sunday 10:00 AM Mass. We need you! In order to remain open every Sunday this fall we need 2-3 more volunteers to help out in the nursery rotation. You would only be needed once a month or so on a rotating basis and you would always be working with another nursery volunteer. Please email cathyberger@comcast.net or sarah.frey.ma@gmail.com if you are an adult who has taken the Child Protection class and can help us.

Thank you for your help and support of this ministry which helps our parish members with small children enjoy Sunday mass! A special thanks to all of our current nursery volunteers who make it possible each week.
